themes, and more - everything you need to sharpen your knowledge of The Complete Short Stories of Ernest Hemingway.

“A Clean, Well-Lighted Place” “A Clean, Well-Lighted Place,” was written in 1933, by Ernest Hemingway. The main characters in the story are two waiters, one old, one young and an older man who is their customer in the cafe on the evening the story takes place.

“A Clean-Well-Lighted Place” also exhibits modernist work because once again, the meaning of the story is found between the lines. As with “Hills Like White Elephants,” characters do not have any names in the story, reinforcing
