Modernization theory is used to explain the process of modernization within societies. Modernization refers to a model of a progressive transition from a 'pre-modern' or 'traditional' to a 'modern' society. Modernization theory originated from the ideas of German sociologist Max Weber (1864–1920), which provided the basis for the modernization paradigm developed by Harvard sociologist ...

comparative studies of policy-making over both time and space are still required if the lessons of past studies are to continue to better inform both contemporary policy theorizing and practice.

The Nigerian health care has suffered several down-falls.[1–7] Despite Nigerian's strategic position in Africa, the country is greatly underserved in the health care sphere. Health facilities (health centers, personnel, and medical equipments) are inadequate in this country, especially in rural areas.[1,2,6] While various reforms have been put forward by the Nigerian government to address the ...
