Intelligence A smart person is someone who is knowledgeable about themselves and the world around them. A smart person is someone who is always educating themselves and always asking questions and always investigating things. A smart person will always provide proof and evidence that accurately explains their observations and explains their decisions, even when they make mistakes.

If you think that intelligence emanates from the mind and that reasoning necessitates the suppression of emotion, you'd better think again—or rather not “think” at all. In his provocative new book, Guy Claxton draws on the latest findings in neuroscience and psychology to reveal how our bodies—long dismissed as mere conveyances—actually constitute the core of our intelligent life ...
