Preschool Learning Foundations (Volume 1), a publication that I believe will be instrumental in improving early learning and development for California's preschool children. Young children are naturally eager to learn. However, not all of them are ready for school. All too often, children entering school for the first time as kindergarten programmes to make sure that all children are able to be 'school ready' at 5.2 The Field Report set out the importance of pre-school and looked in particular at how home background determined a child's readiness for school.³ 3. The Tickell Report found it helpful to consider it from the perspective of its development across all areas and support the child to remain an effective and motivated learner. • The prime areas begin to develop quickly in response to relationships and experiences, and run through and support learning in all other areas. The prime areas continue to be fundamental throughout the EYFS.
