When I first started reading Go for No, the storyline felt a little hokey. But seriously, stick with it. It's a short book so it's only a few pages before you get to the concept of Go for No – a concept that is so clearly what you need to be doing that you'll forget that it was a hard start.. The authors and the reviewers promised a book with a concept that will change your life and if ...

23/3/2016 · A destination is the end point of a link represented by text in the Destinations tab. Destinations enable you to set navigation paths across a collection of Adobe PDF documents. Linking to a destination is recommended when linking across documents because, unlike a link to a page, a link to a destination is not affected by the addition or deletion of pages within the target document.

Google's free service instantly translates words, phrases, and web pages between English and over 100 other languages.
