Holocaust survivors--theologians, scholars, Survivor ebooks spiritual leaders, authors, artists, political and community leaders and media personalities--from sixteen countries on six continents reflect on how the memories transmitted to them have affected their lives.

In this book, God, Faith and Identity from the Ashes: Reflections of Children and Grandchildren of Holocaust Survivors, the editor and also contributor, Menachem Z.
Rosensaft asks the question: " How have your parents' and grandparents' experiences and examples helped shape your identity and your attitudes towards God, Faith, Judaism, the Jewish people and the world as a whole?"

In my introduction to God, Faith & Identity from the Ashes: Reflections of Children and Grandchildren of Holocaust Survivors, the newly published book I had the privilege of compiling and editing for Jewish Lights Publishing, I describe how six months later, I took our daughter, Jodi, then a college sophomore, to Poland for the first time.

She published many articles and contributed chapters to different books, among them God, Faith & Identity from the Ashes: Reflections of Children and Grandchildren of Holocaust Survivors (2015) and Remembering The Holocaust in
