Book Of A Lifetime: Honeymoon, By Patrick Modiano | The ...

23/10/2011 · 'Honeymoon' is a quest, a conundrum and a lament, but above all, perhaps, it is a meditation on the seductions and pitfalls of memory. Modiano conjures up a world so delicate and elliptical, so ...

Honeymoon | novel by Modiano | Britannica

In Patrick Modiano. In a review of Honeymoon, the English translation of Modiano's Voyage de noces (1990), one reviewer wrote, "At times he reads like a strange cross between Anita Brookner and the Ancient Mariner, forever buttonholing the reader with his own brand of exquisite angst." Though they are usually set in... Read More

Book Review: Honeymoon by Patrick Modiano – The Exiled Soul

6/12/2019 · ‘Honeymoon’ by Patrick Modiano is an evocative, melancholic tale, and, at times, it resembles a frame from “film noir” of the 1950s. Modiano presents the lives of the protagonists from the point of an observer, never depicting the reality in a straightforward manner, but rather showing different angles, playing with the memory, the passage of time and changeability of place we used know.

HONEYMOON | Kirkus Reviews

29/10/2014 · Brooding, philosophically rich novel by Modiano (Missing Person, 2014, etc.), recipient of the 2014 Nobel Prize in literature. Jean B. is a filmmaker—a documentary filmmaker, more precisely, and one constantly on the go from continent to continent and culture to culture: “I was just back from Oceania,” he recalls, “and I was to leave for Rio de Janeiro a few days later.”
