essay, movie, etc. The goal is two fold: one, identify and explain the argument that the author is making, and two, provide your own argument about that argument. One of the key directions of these assignments is often to avoid/minimize summary – you are not writing a book report, but evaluating the author’s argument.

You may choose to divide your paper into three sections labeled with headers, or you could choose to write the piece in a more traditional “essay” format without headers. Your professor may have a specific preference, so read the assignment sheet carefully. A Process for Writing An Article Analysis

A good article analysis can only be written if you've read the article carefully and thoroughly—and preferably, multiple times. The purpose of writing an article analysis is to demonstrate that you have read, understood, and can apply scholarship in the business field, and to demonstrate your critical thinking abilities.

A critical analysis is subjective writing because it expresses the writer's opinion or evaluation of a text. Analysis means to break down and study the parts. Writing a critical paper requires two steps: critical reading and critical writing. Critical reading: 1. Identify the author's thesis and purpose 2.
