To build these balloon powered cars, you just need to build a basic LEGO car. You can use a pre-built LEGO car and add some bricks on top to hold the balloon in place on top of the car, or build your own with 2 sets of wheels. To propel the car, blow up the balloon, then twist it a little to keep the air from escaping.

If I Built A Car is the first book in the children's picture book series If I Built..., written and illustrated by Chris Van Dusen, which follows an imaginative boy named Jack who wants to design the perfect car. The text is rather simplistic, straightforward, and lyrical. Written in rhyming couplets, the narrative tells the car that a little boy growing up in 1950s
