7/5/2021 · Selling stocks for a profit will increase your tax bill. But selling stocks for a loss will decrease your tax bill. To prevent you from taking advantage of this tax benefit, there's something known as the "wash sale rule," which delays the tax implications of any profits or losses if you re-enter the same position within 30 days. In other words, if you sell a stock for a loss, then buy the same ...

the most successful traders of the present day began as Tape Readers, trading in small lots of stock with a capital of only a few hundred dollars. Joe Manning, was one of the shrewdest and most successful of all the traders on the floor of the New York Stock Exchange. A friend of mine once said: "Joe and I used to trade in ten share lots together.
