communication (technical/engineering drawing) may prove irreplaceably useful. Drawing (just like photography) is one of the basic forms of visual communication. Drawing is used to record objects and actions of everyday life in an easily recognizable manner. There are two major types of drawings: artistic drawings and technical drawings.

Figure 2 - An Isometric Drawing. Any engineering drawing should show everything: a complete understanding of the object should be possible from the drawing. If the isometric drawing can show all details and all dimensions on one drawing, it is ideal. One can pack a great deal of information into an isometric drawing.
