21/1/2021 · The compositional materials for 'the Mill on the Floss' focus on the use of voice as a primary sound source and where possible, the voices of the actors in the production have been used. The voice is explored not only for its emotive qualities, but also as a signifier of identity and identity theory forms an important framework for the compositional structure.

Mary Anne Evans (1819-1880) was born in Warwickshire, England, the youngest daughter of an estate agent (after whom Caleb Garth in her classic Middlemarch seems to have been modeled). She was raised as an Evangelical Protestant, but in her early twenties she turned away from the faith of her parents and rejected organized religion, becoming a freethinker.

The Mill on the Floss, then, displays Eliot's interest in the new Darwinian theories as well as the nature-nurture debate with an exploration of these ideas through the character of Maggie Tulliver.
