review 2: Meh I rounded up to 3 but this one is a 2.5 at best,no where near as good as the first one was. This book has the feel of every other book out there in this genre, the story feels rushed & the awesome raw grit of the Pretty When She Dies is long gone. Definitely written/edited for the "mass market" appeal of the "Twilight" crowd.

Pretty When She Dies was exciting, dark, funny, and intense. But Pretty When She Kills had plot problems, the characterization was poor, and I was pretty bored for a good portion of it. The book starts out with one storyline, then that gets dumped, and we get a whole new storyline to focus on.
