Okay, about a decade ago I read this light hearted adult fantasy historical romance book. (More of the typical romance book by the way. I did buy it from the romance section, not the fantasy area.). I keep thinking it's Nina Bang's or maybe Linda Howard's but I never find it under their lists of books.

This epic book list features the best historical romance novels worth reading. Even if you are a lover of romance books perhaps you’ve never picked up a historical romance novel. This genre can be stigmatized as simple bodice rippers but my all-time favorite historical romance authors turn this misconception on its head. I’ve listed the top 10 best historical romance novels that I’ve ...

23/11/2020 · Ivory Moore has a career as a regency-era fixer. She does PR for scandals—and if you read enough historical romances, you know just how destructive scandals can be. Captain Maximus Harcourt, the Duke of Alderidge, has returned from a voyage at sea to find his family in turmoil and Ivory attempting to smooth over the mess.

As the author of over a dozen high-profile historical romances, and winner of several awards given by the Romance Writers of America, she’s one of the leading voices in the romance genre. Along with Lisa Kleypas (and Julia Quinn and Nora Roberts, both of whom we’ll get to soon), Sarah MacLean is essentially a founding mother of the historical subgenre as we know it today.
