17/11/2015 · im looking for a book i started to read in the early-mid nineties but never got to finish. im sorry my clues arent much. i remember the cover being very green, with a pic of the hero & heroine. it was a historical romance, set during settlers time. the girls family & cabin/homestead is attacked by native americans. i think it was a wooded area. they are all killed and scalped, but she is taken ...

13/5/2015 · The second Historical Romance: Coastal town, pirate (maybe) but captain of ship and woman who faints around him. Either when he is around or kisses her. Unlikely romance. The third Historical Romance: Mostly what I remember is beautiful hand held fans. I think the Heroine made them or her family did. King, castle, court and so on.

When her mother suddenly dies, Sara must abandon her plans to become a ballerina and join her estranged father on Chicago's gritty South side. She feels out of place until she is befriended by a black classmate and her handsome brother, Derek. Sara and Derek's shared love for dance leads to romance-- and opposition from their families and friends.
