Seventeenth Summer is about a teenager named Angie, who falls in love for the first time. The begining of the novel caught my attention and I liked the book a lot, but towards the mid-end, I was bored and just wanted to finish it already. I really thought that I would love this book, because I love love-stories.

1/11/2011 · A summer to remember... Angie always thought high school romances were just silly infatuations that come and go. She certainly never thought she would fall in love over one short summer. But then she sees Jack Duluth's crew cut peek out over a booth in McKnight's drugstore, and their connection is beyond any childish crush. Suddenly, Angie and Jack are filling their summer with stolen ...
