Anthony Storr) Solitude in the Modern Day. Solitude is a key ingredient in the quest to satisfy the drive for individuation, independence, and self-realization. Yet in the modern day, true solitude is becoming increasingly difficult to find. Individuals today, even when physically alone, do not experience solitude.

It is from the Solitude: A Return to the Self by Anthony Storr, which makes the statement that throughout the world there are a plethora of diverse people among each other. Some who make "mature personal relationships and some are extremely isolated." (Chapter 7 Page 61 Anthony Storr).
