Brett J. Talley's That Which Should Not Be is a novel in stories which pays tribute to the classic works of horror fiction, particularly H.P. Lovecraft and his Cthulhu mythos. Cartwer Weston is a student at the Miskatonic University in Arkham, Massachusetts, a place where both the faculty and students have an interest in all things occult and supernatural.

28/7/2014 · That Which Should Not Be by Brett J. Talley. Posted on July 28, 2014 Author Leah Saylor-Abney. Rating: 3.5 of 5. Supernatural horror built on the Cthulhu Mythos, then remodeled and added to by Talley. Supported the idea of “good” and “evil.” Heavy on the Christian perspective.

Still, Talley is wonderful at crafting suspense, and each sub-story pays homage to a high theme of occult horror: the spirit-creature in the woods, the unholy monastery and the insane asylum with dark secrets, respectively. Captain Grey and Carter's stories are linked, and together they're Talley's version of ...
