The Bear and the Nightingale is the first novel in The Winternight Trilogy, and this was one of the five book series I wanted to read this year. I will admit that I was extremely skeptical about The Bear and the Nightingale. I'm not a fan of Young Adult novels, so I wasn't sure if I would like this one, either.

18/3/2018 · The theme of “love conquers all” was what led to his demise as he threw himself at “ the Bear ” to save his children. “Religion” is a main theme which is embedded in the Russians’ people’s lives, consistently questioning if the paganist-like practice of pleasing house fairies should be discarded and follow the faith of Christianity in full throttle or else all hell will break ...

1/5/2018 · Words cannot describe how much I have loved this novel! I can’t wait to buy the second book in the Winternight Trilogy- The Girl in the Tower. The Bear and The Nightingale is an absolutely fantastic and magical book. I highly recommend this book to all readers, especially for fans of Neil Gaiman.
