As a social worker, one of the most important genres of writing you will use in order to convey information about a particular client will be the psychosocial assessment. A psychosocial assessment is the social worker's summary as to the problems to be solved. The social worker considers a variety of factors, which may

His social worker started a life book with Sammy, exploring with him his feelings about his history. Sammy's adoptive mother continued work on the book, record-ing with Sammy his insights about his life. In time, Sammy became calmer, learning to control his behavior and vent his anger appropriately. His school behavior and work improved.
