20/1/2020 · Rule-breaking: Taken as a whole, Beethoven's Second is by no means a game-changer in the course of classical music – that would come with the Eroica two years later. There are, though, already plenty of signs here that he was itching to go his own way. Take for instance, the third movement, where he ventures a step further along the path he'd already begun to tread in the First Symphony ...
