Radetzky March, Op. 228, is a march composed by Johann Strauss Sr. in 1848. It was dedicated to the Field Marshal Joseph Radetzky von Radetz, and became quite a popular march among soldiers. It has been remarked that its tone is more celebratory than martial- Strauss was commissioned to write the piece for a celebration of Radetsky's victory at the Battle of Custoza.

The Radetzky March was originally issued in piano versions, including one for four hands (Haslinger no. 10966). While the ensemble at the première is likely to have been a standard military orchestra, it is difficult to know precisely which instruments were involved, since no full score has survived.
