The Well Catherine Chanter. Is narrator Ruth a saint who will save the world from a dystopian future, or a mentally disturbed obsessive who must 'have it all'? I am not sure, but I did find The Well an ambitiously disturbing read which made me think again about subjects as diverse as social media, the Church of England, and drug abuse.

20/11/2014 · "The Well" by Catherine Chanter was a book I found myself drawn to. The description and reviews of the book piqued my interest. The buzzwords that intrigued me were: Big Brother, religious cult, dystopian, surveillance. We basically received none of these, sadly. The book details the life of Ruth, who had just been released from prison.
