19/11/2013 · Abstract. Twenty years ago we opened a dialogue and collaboration through the theatre company Brith Gof, of which Mike was the founding artistic director. As Pearson/Shanks we bring together performance art and archaeology through shared interests: forms of (re)collection—the gatherings of memory practices; and site and locale—treated as multitemporal articulations, where different events ...

9/11/2020 · "Archaeological Theory in Dialogue provides vivid evidence of the health and richness of archaeological thinking. This is neither a manifesto for a self-proclaimed new paradigm, nor a set of unrelated papers, but a genuine engagement between scholars who exchange views on a series of issues of agreed importance to the continuing development of the discipline.
