1/11/2017 · Ruby Neri - Why I Create. Exploring the inspirations and attitudes of artists working with clay and ceramic, featured in Vitamin C. Ruby Neri first found success under a different name and in a different medium: her graffiti images of horses, made under the alias of 'Reminisce', could be found all over her hometown of San Francisco in the 1990s and early 2000s.

Dean SAMESHIMA has been featured in Art Forum, Flash Art, Modern Painters, Art In America, I-D Magazine, Index, Flash Photo, I-D, Soma, and The New York Times. Instilled and Lost, featuring selected works, was just published by Peres Projects. He was also included in the Cream 3, 2003 catalogue and Vitamin Ph, New Perspectives in Photography, 2006.

Pietro Roccasalva (b. 1970, Modica, Italy) makes paintings, sculptures, films, and other works that constitute a single, ever-expanding artistic vision. The entirety of his practice is like an ongoing installation that takes place in different locations across many moments in time; each piece refers both to past works as well as a potential infinity of future ones.
