Social media is a mysterious, slightly scary playground to me, the diehard introvert. Kristen Lamb presents it in a straight-forward but entertaining manner that proves there is a place, even for me. I doubt I'll ever be the Maven-Connector she is. But there is a place, and she shows me how to claim it. ...

Kristen calls her solution "WANA" -- We Are Not Alone. It's simultaneously a movement, an Internet community, and an intimate manner of book marketing. She advocates a "holistic" approach to social media, one that sees platform as "a living work of art that is meshed with the soul of the writer-artist." Don't worry if all this sounds big and vague.
